Dear Sarah,

I'm having a wonderful holiday here in New Zealand. I'm staying in Wellington with my Aunt Grace - she's my mother's cousin. Aunt Grace is 58 years old.

She is a small lady with short, dark hair. She's got lovely brown eyes and she wears round glasses. She smiles all the time and she talks non-stop. She is very interesting because she reads a lot. She came to live in New Zealand when she was 25. She doesn't know any of her nephews and nieces back home because she never goes to Britain. She says it's too far and too expensive and she's very happy where she is.

She's a chief gardener in a big city park, but she is having a holiday this week this is why I'm staying with her. Every day we visit a different place. The view from the mountains is wonderful. I'm staying here for two weeks, then I'm flying to Australia for another three weeks.

See you soon,

Love,

Pat
