- Read Sheila's letter to Kenza in Mohammadia, then complete the notes :

Dear Kenza,

Thank you very much for the birthday card. I was very happy to receive it. I'm organising a small party, like we do in England, next Saturday.

I'm going to invite some friends from school. Can you come? Mohammadia isn't very far from Rabat and you can stay in my house for the weekend.

We all want to sing and dance. Please come and bring your flute with you.

Best wishes.

II- Practice

2-1/ Exercise 1 (Reading)

- Read laura's letter then write true or false and justify :

Dear Fred,

How are you?

Today is a special day in Morocco and in all the Islamic world. It is the new Moslem year, called the New Hegire year (Fatih Moharram). In the Moslem calendar, it's the year 1424. It's a day off. People go to the mosque and do their prayers. They wear traditional clothes (men wear djellabas and women wear caftans). They exchange visits to families, relatives and friends. They drink tea, eat cakes and other local food. I'm now sitting round a big table with Lamia and her family. There is a lot of food on the table Meloui, Harsha, Rghifa, Sellou... It's very delicious. I'm enjoying my stay here.

Yesterday, I was at Adil's birthday party. Adil is Lamia's cousin. He is travelling to London next August and he is going to visit us there.

Bye for now.
Take care,
Laura
